St. Mary & St. George Coptic Orthodox Church

“The God of heaven Himself will prosper us; therefore we His servants will arise and build” (Nehemiah 2:20)

Our beloved church, Saint Mary and Saint George Coptic Orthodox Church in Tallahassee, was established in 2002, serving a limited number of families at that time. Since then, the number of families and church services grew steadily. Our parish is now a home to a congregation from different ethnicities and cultures: Copts (Egyptian), Sudanese, Ethiopian, Eritrean, Russian, Palestinian, Syrian, and converts from our local community. The number of our families has grown to 88 families, comprising 257 souls served by our church and clergy.

We have outgrown our current facility. To facilitate the ongoing growth of our parish, the church’s Board and congregation collectively approved the construction of an auxiliary service building “St. John Chrysostom Family Life & Student Center”, which will feature a mixed-use hall for indoor activities/sports and event celebration, Sunday School classrooms and meeting rooms, offices, chapel, library, bookstore, and commercial-use kitchen, in addition to newly created programs to serve newcomers, retirees, elderly, children education, and youth.

With the grace of God, we have made some great progress. The site plan is complete. The full set of plans are underway for completion and submission for permitting. We have begun the loan process. The estimated cost of this project is $1.8 million. With the abundant blessings of God and your sincere support, we pray to make this project become a reality. Therefore, we hope you make a charitable, tax-deductible contribution to support St. John Chrysostom Family Life & Student Center. We ask that you pray for us that the Lord may complete this work according to His will.

In Christ Jesus our Lord.
